

I do not want to see Indiana's no-call regulations diluted in any way. There are numerous ways for any financial institution to reach me if necessary, without having the carte blanche right to invade my auditory privacy. Thank you!